

PAUL STACKHOUSE

Lexington, KY

1. What years did you quiz?
1979-1981
2. Where and for what church did you quiz?
Oakdale (KY) FMC
3. What were the highlights of your quizzing years?
Learning and memorizing scripture. Attending nationals at Greenville College & Spring Arbor College.
4. Did you or your team win any championships? If so, what and when?
Our team placed third nationally and won several firsts and seconds in Wabash Conference quizzing in level A & B. I came in 5th in individuals over Acts in 1981,
5. Did you receive any other special quizzing awards? If so, what?
I was awarded a sportsmanship award from our local coach, Rev. C. E. Odermann
6. What was your favorite scripture? Why?
"My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in Me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as You are in Me and I am in You. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that You have sent Me." In John 17:20-21 Jesus prayed for all of us who are believers now.
7. How did Quizzing affect you as a teen?

Quizzing solidified much of the life-changing work of Jesus Christ in my life as a teen.

8. What difference has quizzing made in your life to this day?

Scripture I memorized as a teen remains alive and active in my life nearly every day!

9. Are you presently involved in Bible Quizzing in any way or have you been since you were a quizzer? If so, how?

I continue to serve as Free Methodist Denominational Statistician and Webmaster. The local FM churches here don't offer quizzing; I am an active coach in the Ohio Valley District of the C&MA church with whom my daughter just finished quizzing as a junior (5th grade) quizzer.

10. What ministries are you currently doing? How are you presently active in serving the Lord?

I have just finished my third term as a lay elder in our local church. I serve as the volunteer network administrator for our church (12 PCs). I am a weekly adult leader in our church's children's ministry called "Exploration Station". I am a greeter in regular rotation and serve as a small group leader.

(Editor's Note: Paul maintains a first-class denominational Bible Quiz web site and has faithfully helped run Bible Quiz Finals for many years. His computer and technical skills and tournament insights have been greatly appreciated.)
